

Body temperature check

In view of public health consideration, starting from 13 February 2020, all court users (including parties, legal representatives, reporters, members of the public and contractors' staff) entering Judiciary premises have to undergo body temperature checks.

2. Any court user whose body temperature is higher than 37.5°C or who refuses to undergo body temperature check will be denied entry into Judiciary premises.

Judiciary Administration

11 February 2020