

Schedule on re-opening of court registries and other offices

March 2020
Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28
29	30	31

- From 9 March 2020: Re-opening of Court of Final Appeal Registry, High Court Registry, Clerk of Court’s Office, Probate Registry and Competition Tribunal Registry. Also re-opening of certification counters of the Court Language Section in the Wanchai Law Courts Building (“WLCB”), public counters of Bailiff Offices at various court premises and Integrated Mediation Office in WLCB.
- From 12 March 2020: Re-opening of Family Court Registry
- From 13 March 2020: Re-opening of District Court Registry
- From 17 March 2020: Re-opening of registries and offices of Lands Tribunal, Magistrates’ Courts, Coroner’s Court, and Obscene Articles Tribunal. Also re-opening of the Building Management Mediation Coordinator’s Office at the Lands Tribunal
- From 19 March 2020: Re-opening of registries and offices of Labour Tribunal and Small Claims Tribunal (except Information Centre)

From 23 March 2020: General resumption of court proceedings if public health conditions permit. Also re-opening of High Court Library, Resource Centre for Unrepresented Litigants at the High Court Building (“HCB”), Small Claims Tribunal Information Centre, and Counter Services of Complaints Office at HCB.

Note 1: While the registries and offices will be generally re-opened for business from the dates indicated above, some services will continue to be suspended during the period before 23 March 2020.

Note 2: The canteen in the HCB and the Tuck Shop in the West Kowloon Law Court Building will remain closed until further notice having regard to the public health situation.