<sup>note 1</sup> This form may be used where no form is prescribed for the proceedings, but it must be used for the proceedings under Part 4 of the Competition Tribunal Rules (Cap. 619 sub. leg. D).

<sup>note 3</sup> Insert the section(s) under which this application is made (for example, section 63, 92, 94, 97, 99, 104(1), 111(2) or 169 of the Competition Ordinance (Cap. 619)).

1. State the complaints and identify the breach with reference to the relevant merger rule or conduct rule if the application is made under section 92, 94, 97 or 99 of the Competition Ordinance (Cap. 619).
2. Insert the commitment with reference to the register of the commitment and identify the breach if the application is made under section 63 of that Ordinance.
3. State the circumstances under which sections 102 and 103 of that Ordinance are satisfied if the application is made under section 104(1) of that Ordinance.
4. State why a follow-on action may be brought within the period specified in section 111(1) of that Ordinance.

5. State the circumstances under which sections 168 and 169 of that Ordinance are satisfied if the application is made under section 169 of that Ordinance.

<sup>note 5</sup> State the relief sought including any order under Schedule 3 or 4 to the Competition Ordinance (Cap. 619), costs of the proceedings and order under section 96 of that Ordinance.

<sup>note 6</sup> The grounds must be supported by an affidavit which verifies the facts relied on if so required by the relevant rules of the Competition Tribunal Rules (Cap. 619 sub. leg. D).

* Delete whichever is inapplicable.
